

The International Jewish Solidarity Network presents

INTERNATIONAL RESISTANCE TO ZIONISM

Black Panther Party (Israel); Bay Area activists; Matzpen (UK)

A panel discussion between anti-Zionist Jewish and Arab American activists on strategies for resistance to Zionism as part of broader movements for liberation.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 2008 :: 7-9PM

522 Valencia Auditorium :: donations requested, no one turned away

Unfortunately, the auditorium is on the 3rd floor and not wheelchair accessible – content will be posted online shortly after.

Invited speakers include:

Reuven Abarjel, Arab Jewish founder of Israel's Black Panther party and activist from Israel

Gabriel Ash, anti-capitalist writer and activist living in Geneva

Marcella Ederly, Arab Jewish feminist activist, organized the Single Mother's Tent to secure rights for single Jewish & Palestinian women in Israel

Selma James, long-time organizer, beginning with women, against colonialism & racism, and coordinator of the Global Women's Strike

Liliane Kaczerginski, long-time Argentinean activist from Paris and member of Matzpen, a Jewish-Palestinian anti-Zionist organization founded in 1962 and active through the 1980s

Ricardo Levins Morales, Puerto Rican, Jewish activist and artist from Minneapolis

Feroze Mithiborwala, convener of the National Alliance of People's Movements in India and active in Palestine solidarity, anti-racist, anti-Islamophobia and anti-caste organizing nationally

Michel Shehadeh, a long-time Arab American activist, currently executive director of the SF Arab Film Festival and a member of the landmark LA 8 Case

Zeina Zaatari, Arab American activist, founding member of the Radical Arab Women's Activist Network and the National Council of Arab Americans

Contact: jewishsolidaritybayarea@gmail.com

Co-sponsored by the Arab Organizing & Resource Center, Break the Siege, Global Women's Strike, and Middle East Children's Alliance.

The International Jewish Solidarity Network (IJSN) is an emerging international network of Jews who are committed to struggling in solidarity with Palestinian resistance against Zionism and its manifestation in the State of Israel. www.ijsn.net